NUMBER 205

THE GREAT VICTORY!

The mightiest political contest of the century is just closed. Republican principles have won the crown. The Republican party has been endorsed. A solid North answered a solid South. James A. Garfield, the gallant soldier, the eminent statesman, the accomplished scholar, the honest man, has been triumphantly elected to the Presidency.

The Democratic goes down to oblivion. Forgery has been made odious. Lying has been rebuked. The managers of the Democratic party are crawling in the dust and writhing under the stings of defeat. The Democratic policy is clothed in rags. Confederate arrogance bows its head in shame. Sectionalism is in its death struggle. General Hancock, the insulter of a down-trodden race, the catspaw of the Southern Brigadiers, the author of Order No. 49, the man "ambitious, vain, and weak," has gone down with the general wreck.

The result is not different from that predicted in the columns of the Gazette from the time the Chicago convention nominated General Garfield. From that hour the Republican party became stronger. It received a new birth. From Maine to California and from Minnesota to the Mason and Dixon line, came the applause of the Republican party. There never was a time in the history of the party when it was stronger than during the past campaign. The nomination of Garfield wheeled the mighty column of the grand old party into line and renewed its courage. Then there came from the South the same mutterings of discontent and threats which gave the country the civil war. An honest vote and a fair count had been ignored. Justice had been threatened and even murdered for fidelity to principle. The "men who plunged the country into war for the purpose of perpetrating slavery, were now trying to rise into power. These things fired the Northern heart afresh. Republican enthusiasm and Republican patriotism were recreated, and there came from a solid party that firm resolve that loyalty and not treason, that the North and not the South, should dominate in this government.

The news from the States is fully up to the strongest expectations of the Republicans. Every Northern State, possibly excepting New Jersey, has spoken for Garfield and Arthur. New York on which Democrats planted their cherished hopes has gone Republican by from 20,000 to 30,000. Connecticut, which they were sure of carrying, has likewise gone Republican. Indiana, which William H. English promised to redeem in November if it cost him $100,000, has repudiated Hancock and English by 6,000 or 7,000 majority. The majority in the North is tremendous, and shows that the people are in dead earnest in demanding that there shall be neither North nor South in politics in this country; and that the laboring man shall not be degraded, nor our manufacturing interests left to the mercenary control of English capitalists.

The lesson of this result is this: The Democrats cannot expect to re-establish the Lost Cause. They can not expect to ride into power on the backs of rebel brigadiers. They can not expect to get the support of the workingman by advising them to vote to reduce their own wages. They can not expect to rule this country by virtue of a dishonest ballot and to take a false count. They can not expect to get the support of an intelligent North by keeping the fires of sectionalism alive in the South. They can not do these things. They are responsible for the crushing defeat of yesterday. They brought this trouble on themselves. By forgery and lying and every art known to deviltry, their managers attempted to blacken the character of one of the grandest men in this country. They took the wrong course. They mistook the temper of the people, and they have gone down to political death.

The majority is simply "superb."

Where is the Democratic walkaway?

The flag is at half mast on Governor's Island.

What is the state of the superb's mind to-day?

Does Hancock think this election is a local issue?

"President Garfield," sounds well enough for the North.

The Democratic party should organize itself into a "Jav's club."

The size of Garfield's majority is what is troubling the Democrats.

Every male Baranum bought made twenty thousand Republican votes.

DEMOCRATIC CONFESSIONS.

Beaten again he said!
It makes the Yanks so glad.
And loud in jubilation;
As if the flag is up.
It is a victory cup.
Pressed on by the Nation.

Our triumph is done for.
What he could have run for
Nobody now can tell.
We tried to put him in
By every kind of sin.
That gives a sulphurous smell.

We lied about Garfield.
Told loudly how he stole.
And did such wicked pranks;
We forged a Chinese letter.
Thought it proved a scoundrel.
But hundreds left our ranks.

Our meanness was exposed.
And but as in the long run.
Alas! Alas! Alas!
We've made ourselves an ass.
And proved it by our lying;
Next time we play the lion.
We'll hide the ears and die in
The role we are playing.

It is said that Hancock means well. He evidently means to stay at Governor's Island.

The rebel office seekers will have no occasion to make any more visits to Governor's Island.

In lying and forging the Democrats did their worst,—in voting, the Republicans did their best.

The best thing within the gift of President Garfield, is deserved by Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll.

The whole North tips its hat at the Wisconsin delegation for making so good a President as Garfield.

Hancock's goose quill, Baranum's chaff, and the forged letter, proved to be telling Republican campaign documents.

It has not yet clear to Hancock's mind what he was nominated for. Probably his "Jersey friends" can explain it to him.

Oh, yes, Chairwoman Parkinson knew about how this election was going. He said Hancock was going to be elected, but he isn't all the same.

If a Democrat looks sick and seems to be burdened with misfortune, don't say much to him. On a solemn occasion of this kind, it is not well to twist things of carrying every Northern State.

When the Almighty had finished making the universe, he had a handful of sand left, and threw it down. This made New Jersey, and it is the only Northern State that has gone Democratic.

Rebel brigadiers will no longer tread the hall of the House of Representatives with a consciousness that they are masters of the situation. They will take back seats after the fourth of March next, and honest men will again resume the control of Congress.

A prominent citizen of Janesville who is a large property holder, declared publicly a few days ago that if Garfield was elected, he would sell his property at a discount of $10,000 and leave town. Here is a chance for a Republican to buy some good property cheap.

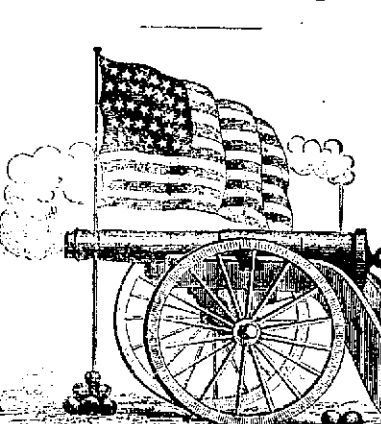

The result down in New Jersey revives the story of a little girl who was going to that State for a two weeks' visit. While saying her prayers one night before she started, she said: "Good bye, O Lord, I am going down to New Jersey to spend a couple of weeks."

The result in Rock county is a source of great satisfaction to the Republicans. They have fought a splendid battle, and have won a brilliant victory. The majority for Garfield will not be far from thirty-two hundred. In 1872, the county gave Grant 3,308 majority over Greeley, and in 1876, Hayes' majority was 2,893. It is possible that the full returns will show that Garfield's majority will be fully up to that which Grant received in 1872. The Republican county ticket will be elected by majorities not much below that given to Garfield. The result is an honorable one to the Republicans of old Rock. They have done their duty when the emergency called them out, and their reward will be the satisfaction in having borne a noble part in elevating to the Presidency, one of the ablest statesmen and one of the purest public men this country has produced.

Congressman Williams has been re-elected by a majority of not less than 6,000. He has made a splendid run. He ran ahead of his ticket almost everywhere in the district. He has won the success his work, ability, and record richly deserve, and the old First district will rejoice heartily over the result. From the time he started out with General Garfield, he has been doing his duty.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Tiffin, Ohio, says: "I have won an Improved Excelsior Kidney Pad, and received more relief from all remedies I have ever tried. I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers." See Ad.

THE BATTLE WON!

The Democratic Party Defeated For the Sixth Time

And the Grand Old Republican Party the Victors.

A Solid North Sends Greetings to a Solid South.

Twenty-Three States of the Nation Cast their Votes for General Garfield.

No Crumbs for the Democrats North of Mason and Dixon Line.

Except Nine Little Elections on the Ambay Railway.

Chalk and Forgery Prove to be Poor Instruments for the Democrats.

The Democrats Have Got a Change They Didn't Expect.

It is a "Superb" Victory for the Republican Party.

Congress is Republican this Time, and Don't Forget it.

GENERAL RESULT.

Special to the Gazette. Chicago, November 3.—The general result is about as follows: Garfield and Arthur are elected by a large majority, gaining a solid North—only one Northern State (New Jersey) going Democratic.

The New York Herald gives Garfield 232 electoral votes.

New York State gives about 35,000 Republican majority.

Connecticut gives 3,000 Republican majority.

Chicago city shows about 6,000 Republican majority.

Republican senators have been gained in Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

THE LATER APPORTION.

The Estimates of the Result of the Grand Victory.

New York, Nov. 3, 2:30 A. M.—All the indications are that we have made a sweeping victory.

At this hour we estimate our majorities as follows:

Maine, 5,000.
New Hampshire, 2,000.
Massachusetts, 50,000.
Connecticut, 3,000.
Vermont, 25,000.
Rhode Island, 8,000.
Pennsylvania, 45,000.
Ohio, 35,000.
New York, 40,000.
Indiana, 6,000.
New Jersey has probably been carried by Hancock.

The indications are that we have carried all the Pacific states, which with the exception of New Jersey, makes a solid North.

MARSHALL JEWELL.

FROM MADISON.

Special to the Gazette. Madison, Nov. 3.—Madison city gives Hancock 284 majority, which is a Republican gain of 177. The Republican county ticket is elected, from 50 to 500 majority, with possible exceptions of county clerk and register of deeds. The county is a stand off on Congressmen. Caswell's majority in the district will reach 1,500. The Republicans are wild with joy over the glorious news of the Republicans gains all over the country, and the election of Garfield and Arthur. A long black streamer graces the Democratic pole this morning and crape appears on the door of their headquarters. George Ryner of the Madison Democrat moves to give it unanims. We carried every Northern State except New Jersey. We carried the legislature on joint ballot.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—In 1876, Chicago gave Tilden a majority. The majority for Garfield is about 5,000. The Republican county ticket is undoubtedly elected, and the Republican candidates for Congress in the First, Second, and Third districts have majorities as large as, or larger than two years ago. It is a clean sweep. Garfield has at least 222 electoral votes, and there will be no dispute as to the result.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 2 A. M.—The Tribune estimates the Republican majority in the next House of Representatives at nineteen.

New York, Nov. 3, A. M.—The Times places the Republican majority in this State at 25,000, the Tribune at 40,000, and the World at 10,000 to 15,000. The two former papers claim a Republican majority in the new Congress, while the World says the next House will certainly be Democratic by a small majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Harrisburg, Nov. 2.—Pennsylvania reports 30,000 Republican majority, of which Philadelphia contributed 52,000. Harrisburg is elected with 12,000. The legislature, in both branches, is Republican, insuring the defeat of Wallace for the United States senate. The Republicans elect eighteen members of congress, and the Democrats seven or eight. Harry White's district being in doubt.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3, 2:30 A. M.—Five hundred and thirty-four voting places, or 43 per cent of the State, give Garfield 109,762; Hancock Hancock, 88,854; Weaver, 5,077. The same places in October, gave the Republicans 109,367; Democrats 89,091; Nabs, 5,343, an increased vote of 1,110. The Republican gain, 965; Democratic loss, 340; National loss, 295; net Republican gain, 665. The same ratio of gains in the balance of the State will give a Republican majority of 8,300.

OHIO.

Columbus, Nov. 3.—The organization of secret societies, after the order of the Knights of the Golden Circle, failed to materialize the Buckeye State, which has nearly doubled the Republican majority given only three weeks since. The gains in this city and county are something to boast of when it is considered that if it is that the Democrats to-day are in a minority to stand firm. The net Republican gain in the city and county will be about 600 over that given about three weeks since. The State will give Garfield about 40,000 majority. Thompson and McKinney left the headquarters as early as 10 o'clock. They privately acknowledged that the "jig was up."

CONNECTICUT.

Hartford, Nov. 2.—Legislature is Republican.

Hartford, Nov. 3, 1:30 A. M.—The Evening Post has returns from all but four towns, and Garfield has a plurality of 2,768, counting the four towns that were voted in 1876, and this plurality will be increased to 3,181. Bigelow, for governor, runs ahead of the electoral ticket with a plurality of 3,022 and a majority over all of 2,282.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—Milwaukee city and county complete gives Garfield 3,651 majority, a net Republican gain of over 5,000 on the vote of 1876.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—Wisconsin is estimated will give at least 30,000 majority for Garfield. Six out of eight members of Congress are Republican. A gain of one.

ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 2.—As the dispatch comes on from New York and Missouri, the wildest enthusiasm prevails at Republican headquarters at the Leland. Governor Chilmon claims his election by from 25,000 to 30,000 majority, and his friends put the State at 35,000 for Garfield.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nov. 2.—From scattered returns received from the State at large it is probable that Nebraska gives Garfield from 20,000 to 25,000 majority. Nance is elected governor by the same figures. E. K. Valentine, for Congress, runs behind, but will pull 15,000 majority. The result in this city is mixed. Probably a Republican majority on the national ticket of 300, and the majority of the Democratic legislative ticket is elected.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA CITY, Nov. 2.—Nevada has gone for Garfield, and elected a Republican Congressman beyond a doubt. The Senatorship is uncertain. Cannot tell until returns from all counties are in. The legislature is doubtful until official returns are received.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Nov. 3, 2 A. M.—The vote is largely increased over 1876, and the Republican majority will be from 25,000 to 30,000. All the Republican candidates for Congress are elected.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Nov. 2.—Returns come in slowly, on account of the great length of the ticket. Indications are, by the reports in, that the total poll of the State will be 330,000, an increase of 35,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Delaware gave the Democratic candidate for President one thousand majority.

Michigan claims 40,000 majority for Garfield and the congressional delegation.

Louisiana has a solid Democratic congressional delegation.

Kentucky has re-elected six Democratic members of Congress.

Maryland reports 9,000 majority for Hancock in Baltimore.

Virginia is in a fog over the electoral ticket. Democratic Republicans are elected in the second congressional district, and George D. Wise, Democrat, in the third.

Florida has doubtless elected Bloxham, Democrat, Governor, and Davidson, Democrat, to congress from the first district, the second being in doubt. Massachusetts gives Garfield 40,000 majority and sends one Democrat and ten Republicans to congress, Leopold Morse having triumphed in Boston.

New Hampshire is for Garfield by 5,000 majority. The first congressional district is in doubt; Hall and Farr, Republicans, are elected in the second and third.

Texas reports 80,000 majority for Hancock, with 50,000 for Roberts for governor. The congressional delegation is solidly Democratic, and the legislature overwhelmingly so.

Rhode Island gives 6,000 majority and elects both the Republican candidates to Congress.

Vermont has rolled up 28,000 for Garfield.

Alabama sends northward 40,000 majority for Hancock, and has made a clean Democratic Congressional ticket.

Georgia reports Democratic Congressmen elected in four congressional districts. Hancock's majority will be 30,000 less than Tilden's. Hamilton county increased her Republican majority 500.

Missouri appears to have given Hancock 35,000 majority and elected every congressional district. St. Louis elects the Democratic nominees for city officers.

Tennessee has probably given Hancock 40,000 majority. It is thought that Hawkins, Republican, has been chosen governor. Houck, of the Second district, is the only Republican elected to Congress. The Memphis district is in doubt. The four-fifths of the legislators are Democrats.

Mrs. Boutier, 78 Delaware Place, Buffalo, N. Y., says: I have used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for Neuralgia and found permanent relief from its use. Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Shorer.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Special Correspondence to the Gazette. Chicago, Nov. 1.—The exposition closed on Saturday October 23. The visitors averaged 11,000 a day since the opening, or near 4,000,000 in all. The gross receipts were $90,000. Expenses $52,000. The building will be somewhat enlarged ere another fall, and certain improvements made, which will make the attractions greater if possible. The debt of $30,000 is liquidated.

The rush of permanent residents to this city the present fall, exceeds anything in its former history. Old warehouses are utilized and partitioned off into small rooms, and rented to families at from 70 cents to $1 per week. Residents of all kinds are so scarce that it is utterly impossible to secure at once permanent homes. Notwithstanding the number erected this season, dwelling houses of all kinds are in very great demand. If 5,000 residences could be set down in Chicago to-day for rent, one other sunset they would be all occupied. Rents are very firm and advancing, and generally paid promptly to a day.

Wheat is advancing in price and on Saturday the Board of Trade got excited over a dispatch from England that more grain would be required next spring by that country than for many years previous.

A farmer from Nebraska sold a herd of very fine cattle on Saturday at high figures, receiving $3,800. He drew the money and started for his hotel, previous to taking the cars for home; on his way he stepped into a saloon to get a glass of beer. Two men followed. He drank the beer and became stupid and sleepy. He slept; and on awakening three hours afterward, it was dark, and he was in a vacant lot, under a sidewalk. His money is gone beyond recovery.

The above is one out of hundreds of like cases in our midst at present. Strangers should not carry large sums of money on their persons. They are constantly watched, and always in danger of losing either it or their life, or both. A certificate of deposit or draft is better and safer, and if lost, can be replaced.

L. MOUNT.

MILTON.

"Mr. C. R. Matson, Republican candidate for coroner, is a Norwegian by birth, but an American from his childhood up. He served in the army, and was subsequently elected clerk of the police court. He then served six years as justice of the peace, has been admitted to the bar, and is a lawyer by profession. He is a gentleman, thoroughly honorable, and has the enviable reputation of having always kept a clean and honest office when he was justice. He is a man of moderate means, very much respected among the Scandinavians, and has for years acted as a sort of arbitrator, judge, and peace-maker among them. The qualities which are most required for a good coroner are possessed by Mr. Matson. He would fill the office decently and well."

We clip the above from the Sunday Times (Hancock organ), and the Milton friends of Justice Matson can say amen to it.

The parishioners and friends of Rev. W. T. Miller made him a pound surprise party, Monday evening. There was a large attendance, and the donations were liberal.

—B. H. Edgerton, of the Milwaukee commission house of Edgerton & Peck, was in town Monday.

The Pleasures of Hope.

When the body is bowed with pain an intense longing for relief brings hope. This may brighten the suffering but it does not cure. At a time like this how welcome is such a friend as Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, bringing hope, health and happiness and the joys of a renewed life.
